

Library News

February 2022

Before the Coffee Gets Cold: Tales from Café

コーヒーが冷めないうちに

By Toshikazu Kawaguchi,

Translated from the Japanese by Geoffrey Trousselot (Picador, 2020)

Spark: ^{ひばな}火花

By Naoki Matayoshi,

Translated from the Japanese by Alison Watts (Pushkin Press, 2019)

Kiki's Delivery Service: ^{まじょ たつきゅうびん}魔女の宅急便

By Eiko Kadono, Translated by Emily Balistreri,

Illustrated by Yuta Onoda (Delacorte Press, c2020)

Kim Jiyoung, Born 1982:

Palsip Yi Nyeon Saeng Kim Jieyong

By Cho Nam-Joo, Translated by Jamie Chang (Scribner, 2020)

The Ickabog

By J. K. Rowling, With Illustrations by the Winners of
The Ickabog Illustration Competition
(Scholastic, 2020)

Library Corner

LOCATION: International Conference Center Hiroshima (ICCH), 1st Floor

TEL: (082)247-9715

HOURS: 9:00 am – 7:00 pm (From April 1st to September 30th)

9:00 am – 6:00 pm (From October 1st to March 31st)

CLOSED: December 29th through January 3rd

BOOK LOAN POLICY: Up to three books may be borrowed for a two-week period. To obtain an ICCH Library Card, you need to bring identification which has your address, and for foreign residents, your period of stay in Japan. (A Japanese driver's license, student identification card, passport or resident card is an acceptable form of identification.)