

Finding a primary care physician

かかりつけ医を持ちましょう ひろしま市民と市政 11月15日号 (P6)

Don't get caught off guard in case of a medical emergency, have a doctor on hand that you can trust!

While you might think that primary care physicians can only practice internal medicine, but that is not always the case. If you have found a doctor who you feel comfortable discussing your personal health with, that practitioner can also be considered your primary care physician. Be sure to find a good primary care physician nearby so you'll always be in good hands.
