

KOTO 箏

Global Koto Workshop

The KOTO has been played in Japan since the Nara Period (early to late 7th century). In this workshop, you'll experience the tradition with Japanese and foreign residents. Did you know that the score for the koto is written in Kanji? Come learn how to play koto and make a beautiful sound together ♪

Let's enjoy playing Koto together!

Instructor

Nishimoto Keiko

I became a teacher of Koto so I could share the beautiful sound of it with as many people as possible, including foreigners.

Parents and children can participate together

About Hiroshima City Nihongo Desk

We run free-Japanese classes for foreign residents and also organize some events in which you can meet locals. Come make friends while experiencing Japanese cultures!
