Deferred Pension Payments for Students Over 20

20歳以上の学生の国民年金保険料後払い制度があります ひろしま市民と市政 4月15日号 (P6)

Everyone living in Japan aged 20 to 59 must enroll in National Pension (国民年金 // Kokumin Nenkin) and make pension payments, including students. For students who have difficulty paying due to financial issues, etc., deferred pension payment support (payments deferred until graduation) is available.

Who is eligible?

Undergraduates, postgraduates, junior college students, high schoolers, technical college students, and others

Note: Your income from the previous year must have been below a certain threshold. If you have no dependents (family, etc.), this threshold is 1.28 million yen.

How to apply

Apply at the National Insurance and Pension Division of your local ward office.
Bring your pension book and student ID.

Inquiries: National Insurance & Pension Division (Hoken Nenkin Ka)
