Be patient if you see the Help Mark

ヘルプマークを見かけたら 思いやりのある行動を 「ひろしま市民と市政」12月1日号 (p2)

The Help Mark denotes the presence of an invisible illness, disability, or disorder, and invites you to give the holder grace and support.

Please assist the holders of this mark where you can – offer them a seat on public transit, or offer to help them if they seem to be struggling.

For those who need a Help Mark, they are distributed at the Disabled Citizens Welfare Division, ward welfare divisions, and branch offices.

Inquiries: Disabled Citizens Welfare Division

(Shōgai Fukushi Ka) Tel. 082-504-2147

Public vocational training programs: Hello Training

求職者を支援する制度のご利用を 「ひろしま市民と市政」12月15日号 (p3)

“Hello Training” are public vocational training programs for people who wish to acquire the necessary skills and knowledge in order to get a new job as well as to upskill. Training courses are designed based on the needs of local industries such as the automobile manufacturing industry. Training is generally free of charge, but fees for educational material are required.

Note: There are some training programs that may require you to pay a training fee.

For more information about training programs, please see the Hiroshima Labor Bureau (Hiroshima Rōdō Kyoku) website (Japanese).

Note: Automatic translation into English available.

About public vocational training programs

There are two types of vocational training programs available:

▶ 公共職業訓練 (Kōkyō shokugyō kunren)

Vocational training programs for job seekers eligible for employment insurance benefits

▶ 求職者支援訓練 (Kyūshoku-sha shien kunren)

Vocational training programs for job seekers ineligible for employment insurance benefits

The following support programs are available for people who satisfy certain requirements:

- ◆ Training benefits for job seekers (Kyūshoku-sha shien seido)

By taking advantage of this support system, job seekers who satisfy certain requirements can receive vocational training benefits (Shokugyō kunren jukō kyūfukin) of 100,000 yen per month while taking vocational training.

- ◆ Finance loan (Kyōiku kunren shien yūshi)

If you satisfy certain requirements, you can receive finance loan for your living expenses while taking training including a lecture for reskilling.

😊 For more information regarding the support system, including how to apply and what sort of requirements you must meet, please consult with your local Hello Work office.

How to apply

1. Register for job search and have a consultation meeting at your local Hello Work
2. Apply for a vocational training
3. Screening
(Interview and pre-test are required. Please bring a pencil and an eraser for the test.)
4. People who get accepted start attending training
