20 or older? Join the National Pension Plan

20 歳になったら国民年金 「ひろしま市民と市政」 1 月 15 日号

As a general rule, everyone living in Japan aged 20 to 59 must enroll in the National Pension Scheme (国民年金//Kokumin Nenkin), including students. When you turn aged 20, you will receive an enrollment notification. If you do not receive it even after two weeks have passed since you turned 20, please contact your local ward office. (People who work for a company will be enrolled in Employee Pension Insurance (厚生年金 // Kōsei Nenkin).)

If it is difficult to pay the premium because of reasons such as financial problems, you can apply for a partial or total exemption from premiums. For further information contact the following office.

You have until March 16 to file your taxes

税の申告は3月16日（月）までに！ 「ひろしま市民と市政」1月15日号（p4・p5）

Income tax (所得税//shotoku zei) and your municipal or prefectural residents taxes (市民税・県民税//shimin zei・kenmin zei) are based on your last year's income. That means that your final income tax return (確定申告//kakutei-shinkoku) this time will be based on your income for the 2025 calendar year (From January 1 to December 31, 2025). This will then be used to determine your municipal or prefectural residents tax for the fiscal year 2026 (April 1, 2026 to March 31, 2027).

1. Deadlines for filing

- 📅 When filing for income tax (including special income tax for reconstruction), municipal/prefectural residents tax, inheritance tax:

Monday, March 16

- 📅 When filing for national and local consumption taxes for the self-employed:

Tuesday, March 31

- 👉 Those who are required to file taxes and are leaving the country, please file your final tax return before leaving Japan.

2. Who needs to file and who does not need to file taxes

For those who wish to use medical expenses, social insurance premiums for income tax deduction purposes, you will need to file a final tax return.

The criteria used to determine who needs to file taxes and who does not is extremely personal. If you are unsure whether or not you need to file a tax return, please contact your tax office to figure out the best course of action for you. The inquiry number can be found below "4. Tax Return Consultation".

- 👉 If it is difficult for you to pay, such as in the case of injury or natural disaster, an extension or even reduction may be granted depending on your specific situation, so please contact the municipal tax office of your residential area to inquire.

3. How to make a tax return

(1) Getting the form

- ◆ For income tax final returns
 - National Tax Agency website, or at the local tax offices (税務署//zeimu-sho)
- ◆ Municipal/prefectural residents tax returns
 - The City of Hiroshima's official website, or the municipal tax office (市税事務所//shizei jimusho) or tax rooms (税務室//zeimu-shitsu).

(2) The documents you will need

The required documents will depend on your specific situation, for more precise advice check the websites or at your local tax office.

- ★ You will need your My Number, so please ready one of the following:

- ① My Number Card
- ② A copy of a document bearing your My Number, such as a certificate of residence (住民票//jumin-hyō) and a copy of a document proving your identity, such as a residence card (在留カード//zairyū card), driving license, or similar.

(3) Online tax returns using the National Tax Agency's e-Tax website

You can fill out the tax return online using the e-Tax service (electronic application) on the National Tax Agency website. If you prepare your return by smartphone or PC and then send it in via the e-Tax service, you can file your return from home. Additionally, you could also print out your completed form and mail those documents.

The e-Tax service is available 24/7 during the submission period for returns. It can calculate income amounts automatically, and if you save the data, you can use it as a reference for your next year's tax return.

For more on the e-Tax service, check the National Tax Agency website (Japanese only) .

<https://www.nta.go.jp/taxes/shiraberu/shinkoku/tokushu/index.htm>

★ You can also download the form and complete it on paper. However, this will require manual calculation of amounts.

(4) Filing municipal and prefectural residents taxes via the City of Hiroshima's website

As of this year, you can now complete your returns for municipal/prefectural residents taxes digitally or on paper.

◆ When filing digitally

You can now use eLTAX system to do so. Please follow the instructions on eLTAX system with your smartphone or PC. You will need your My Number.

<https://www.city.hiroshima.lg.jp/living/zei/1006016/1025578/1019110.html>

◆ When filing on paper

Please fill out forms from the City of Hiroshima website or municipal tax office. On the City of Hiroshima website, you can enter income tax amounts for the previous year, and fill out the form. Then you can print this and submit it.

<https://www.city.hiroshima.lg.jp/living/zei/1006016/1025583/1019079.html>

4. Tax Return Consultation, Where to File

Final Tax Return

Usually, taxes should be filed at your district taxation office, however, those living in Hiroshima-higashi, Hiroshima-nishi, Hiroshima-minami, and Hiroshima-kita districts, Hatsukaichi city, and the Kaita area, should instead file documents at the combined submission venue between February 16 and March 16.

👉 For those living in area where Hatsukaichi and Kaita taxation offices are responsible for, documents can also be submitted to their district taxation office.

★ You can check your local tax office on the National Tax Agency website.

<https://www.nta.go.jp/about/organization/hiroshima/location/hiroshima.htm>
